

Profile: Michael

Michael joined CMP in 2009 as a mediator and trainer, bringing his considerable experience in workplace dispute processes for local authorities, probation services, education and family mediation. Michael is dynamic trainer, working on short workshops and seminars with larger numbers of delegates. His strength lies in being able to develop delegates' skills in a short time whilst ensuring an exciting programme.

Summary of experience

- Trainer on our endorsed Qualified Workplace Mediator programme for the MOD, Local Authorities, Central Government Departments, Charity and Social Care sectors.
- He delivers exceptionally well-received short programmes, including the Conflict Management for Managers ILM endorsed course
- Michael is a Family Mediator with Mediation Herefordshire
- He spent five years as a facilitator as part of Community Building in Britain – a large-group facilitation model based on the work of M. Scott Peck.
- Michael has worked with a number of clients designing and delivering Conflict Competency, Partnership and Alliancing, and Non-Directive Coaching.

Qualifications

- Accredited mediator with National Family Mediation and CEDR
- MSc in Conflict Resolution & Mediation at Birkbeck (a joint programme with the Institute of Family Therapy)
- BA in English Literature
- Post-Graduate Degree in Drama therapy
- Family Therapy Training

“He made it fun and challenging, gave us the confidence to tackle new things and new ways of thinking. Learnt a lot – thanks.”

“Michael made the course excellent - from facilitating our learning and making it enjoyable.”

“Very experienced, fully engaged with every member of the group, excellent style of delivery.”